Blind Children's Fund 311 W. Broadway Suite 1, Mt. Pleasant, MI 48858 www.blindchildrensfund.org

This is an organization that was founded 30 years ago by Sherry Raynor, a parent of a child who was born blind. There are resources for parents available on-line that are updated periodically. Currently articles include,

Guidelines to parents on introducing glasses to young children Braille—what is it? Parent suggestions for IEP meetings

Hadley School for the Blind 700 Elm Street, Winnetka, Illinois 60093 - 2554 Toll Free: (800) 323 - 4238 http://www.hadley-school.org/Web_Site/Hadley-School.asp

Parents can enroll in courses at no cost that will help them in raising a young child who is visually impaired. Early childhood courses include "Reach out and teach", "Learning through play", "Child development: Early childhood" and "Early independence". This is also a good program for families to learn Braille.

Here is another listserv with a larger interest group: BLINDFAM

BLINDFAM, the "blindness and family life discussion list", is a list dedicated to the discussion of the everyday life experiences of blind persons, their family members, and friends.

BLINDFAM is a forum for discussions of all aspects of family life as they are affected by the blindness of one or more family members, and welcomes discussion of any topic directly related to how blindness has, is, or will be affecting your family life. All family members are invited to join including spouses, parents, and children of a blind individual as well as any blind person.

To subscribe to the BLINDFAM mailing list, send an emessage to: LISTSERV@MAELSTROM.STJOHNS.EDU
